

The Ethiopian Nations, Nationalities and Peoples Day was celebrated at Leather Industry Development Institution

The 9th Ethiopian Nations, Nationalities and Peoples Day constitutional adoption day celebrated at the Leather Industry Development Institute hall with different colorful events on Hidar 26/2007.

The day was opened by the Institute Director General Ato Wendu Legese's speech. According to him, it is a day when the constitution of the land was taking on and it belongs to the Ethiopian Nations, Nationalities and Peoples of Ethiopia.

The Constitution ensuring human and democratic rights, the nations, nationalities and peoples of Ethiopia has entered into a new era of equality and mutual cooperation to safeguard and ensure their common interests. According to the constitution article 39, every Nations, Nationalities and peoples in the country has unconditional right. Thus, successive and evenhanded developments of the nation have become equal with the Ethiopian Renaissance.

Furthermore, this day puts up the diversities among our people to further strengthen unity in diversity, enhance national consensus, empower them and enlarge the awareness of one another. The Director General also added that the constitution is a pledge that salvaged the Ethiopian Nations from disintegration and kept it together.

The Power point presentation, banners posting and brochures distributions concerning the day were some of the events which added more color to the celebrity. The Power point presenter Ato Debele Lema, electronics media team coordinator, touched important points of the constitution in detail.

Eventually, Ato Birhanu serjabo; the corporate communication directorate invited the audiences to discuss regarding the multi importance of Hidar 29. Then many participants raised and discussed on the issue. Finally the moderator clearly presented the strong interrelations between the constitution and the nation, nationalities and people's day in details.
